

Kähler Research Fellowship Mathematical Physics

The Center for Mathematical Physics Hamburg

is a joint venture of DESY and the University of Hamburg.
Its aim is to foster activities in mathematical physics.

As part of the Center the Research Training Group 1670 „Mathematics inspired by string theory and QFT“

is now offering a number of

Research Fellowships

The Fellowships allow researchers at any stage of their career to participate in its scientific activities.

Each fellowship will be awarded for a period of 1-3 months each.
Applications for shorter or longer periods may be considered in exceptional cases.
